CAREER SERVICES

Upcoming Career Services Programs:

The Balancing Act: Life and the Law Sponsored by the Women's Bar Association

On Tuesday, February 6, The Women's Bar Association is hosting a panel discussion and dessert reception for Chicago-Kent students in the 10th Floor Event Room. Six women lawyers from different practice settings will discuss balancing law practice with life. Judge Anne Burke (Chicago-Kent '83) is scheduled to be a panelist.

Students are invited to attend the program, which will run from 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. The discussion will begin at approximately 3:15 p.m. Please sign up in the Career Services Office by Thursday, February 1 at 7:15 p.m. if you plan to attend!

Practice Tracks: A Networking Opportunity Extraordinaire on February 3rd at Chicago-Kent!

You've heard us talk over and over again about the importance of information gathering in identifying a career path and conducting a job search. We've recommended that you do some informational interviewing with practitioners to help you decide what you want to do and how best to market your skills. Now we've made this process even easier by bringing the practitioners to you!

On Saturday morning, February 3, J.D.s from 70 practice areas and alternative careers will be at Chicago-Kent for the express purpose of talking informally with students about careers in different areas. The practitioners will be positioned at tables around the concourse and second and third floor atriums so students can circulate to speak with as many or as few of the participants as they wish.

It's your chance to find out directly from practitioners how seekers are faring in a particular segment of the market, what it's like to practice in an area, which credentials are helpful in finding employment in the area, what skills you should stress in applying, and more!

Join us from 9:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. at the law school to take advantage of this easy way to gather useful information! Please sign up in the Career Services Office if you plan to attend. Flyers listing the areas inside and outside of the law being represented will be available on the table outside Career Services.

Note: The participating attorneys have volunteered their time. Participation does not indicate that the represented organizations have job openings. This program is sponsored by the Chicago Area Law School Consortium.

Brown Bag: Getting Involved in Politics as a Networking Strategy

Come join 3L Scott Seder and Stephanie Rever Chu to discuss how getting involved in political campaigns can lead to excellent networking relationships. ## NEWS FROM THE OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID

As you may have already noticed, the Chicago-Kent Financial Aid Office has and is making changes to improve the financial aid experience for students. One such change is the preliminary financial aid process for returning students for the 1996-97 academic year. A personalized financial aid package will be available for students to pick up in the Financial Aid Office from now until the end of the semester. Upon receipt of the Renewal FAFSA application, it should be completed and mailed to the Department of Education in order to receive your Student Aid Report (SAR); there is a 4-6 week turn-a-round time to receive your SAR. Don't forget to include Chicago-Kent's new Title IV Code in Section H of your Renewal application--E00773.

All other financial aid documents should be returned to the Financial Aid Office by April 1, 1996 for priority processing. Financial aid packages with Renewal FAFSAs may be picked up during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, 8:30 am to 5 pm, in Room 230. Please be certain to get your 1996-97 financial aid package as soon as possible.

We hope that this new initial financial aid process for returning students proves to be easier, more efficient, and better maintained by both the Financial Aid Office and the student.

FACULTY NEWS

Professor Fred Abbott presented a paper in November at the Columbia University Law School conference on the Multilateral Trading System in the 21st Century. His paper concerned the future of the global intellectual property regime. In December, Professor Abbott presented a paper to the Annual Meeting of the International Agricultural Trade Research Consortium in Tucson, Arizona. His subject was the implications of the transition from a soft law to a hard law system in the WTO. This month, Professor Abbott spoke on the TRIPS Agreement at the Intellectual Property Law Section meeting at the AALS Annual Meeting in San Antonio. He also spoke at a New York University Law School/Global Environment and Trade Study Conference in New York. His topic was Regional Trading Arrangements and the Environment.

Professor Anita Bernstein's article, "A Feminist Revisit to the First-Year Curriculum," has been scheduled for publication in the June issue of the Journal of Legal Education. This article is a description and analysis of Professor Bernstein's seminar of the same name, currently offered in the spring semester. The article reflects the editorial, pedagogic, and critical input of Chicago-Kent students.

Professor Philip Hablutzel has been appointed as the liaison from the Illinois Secretary of State to the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws' drafting committee working on a Uniform Limited Liability Partnership Act. He spent the past three days, January 26-28, at a meeting in Dallas working on the new statute.

Professor Rick Hasen participated in a panel discussion on public financing of federal elections at "A Summit on Campaign Finance," held January 19-20 at the Franklin Pierce Law Center in Concord, New Hampshire. Professor Marty Malin spoke on "Using Technology to Improve The Labor Law Course" and demonstrated his NLRB Procedures computer tutorial to the section on Labor Relations and Employment Law at the Association of American Law Schools Convention on January 6, in San Antonio. Also, he was interviewed on Voice of America and on WMAQ Radio concerning the UAW's rejection of the Caterpillar contract and end of the Caterpillar strike on December 5.

Professor Sheldon Nahmod spoke at the Association of American Law Schools convention several weeks ago in San Antonio. He was on a panel of the Jewish Law Section that discussed the legal and normative relevance (and irrelevance) of Jewish Law to poverty in America, welfare and the Contract with America. His presentation dealt with the Ancient Near East context of Biblical Law and the meta-narrative of slavery and redemption contained in the Hebrew Bible. At the same convention, he was also the Chair of the Law and Religion Section. And the Civil Rights and Federal Courts Sections of the Association of American Law Schools presented a joint program in San Antonio on "Section 1983 and Tort Law" which will be published in early 1997 in a special symposium issue of the Chicago-Kent Law Review, with Professor Nahmod as editor.

In December, Professor Nahmod addressed a special scholars class at Niles North High School on the proper role of religion in the public square and the Supreme Court's religion decisions. This two hour program was taped and is being broadcast twice daily - at 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. - on Skokie's local cable channel 16. The first hour is a lecture and the second is a lively question and answer session with the students on topics including, for example, mandatory school choirs, the relation between constitutional rights and moral rights, and Dennis Rodman.

GayLaw

We are out there surfing the Net... Here is a recent sampling of Web transmissions to the listgroup.

- Did you know that the Hawaiian legislature is close to passing a law that legalizes same gender marriages? An important question being considered by many states is whether the "full faith and credit" and "choice of law" doctrines require other states to recognize the Hawaiian marriages.
- Compuserve has been accused of censoring newsgroups connected to their Internet service. Legal minds around the country are having a field day with this issue. Does the Constitution provide an answer ?
- Were you aware that a Legal Writing Professor at the University of Pittsburgh filed a sexual orientation discrimination complaint against the University for denying health care benefits to her same sex partner. We do learn a lot from our Writing Professors, don't we?

Our first meeting of the semester will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, January 30 at 5:00 p.m. in room 570. Please plan on attending to help establish our goals for this semester.

Immigration Club

ATTENTION: THE FUTURE OF THE IMMIGRATION CLINIC DEPENDS ON YOU!

We are holding a meeting for teachers and former, current and prospective Immigration Clinic students interested in preserving this section of the Chicago-Kent Legal Clinic. With the unfortunate impending departure of Alberto Benitez and the uncertain future of the Immigration Clinic, students and teachers need to take action to keep this valuable opportunity open to future Kent students.

At the meeting, we will fill out a petition for the preservation of the Immigration Clinic. Also, former and current Immigration Clinic students will discuss their experiences with prospective students.

Our law school has the only Immigration Clinic in the Chicago area. The public interest group Travelers and Immigrants Aid frequently and consistently refers potential clients to our clinic because the clients do not qualify for pro bono aid, but can not afford the high rates of boutique Immigration Law Firms. Furthermore, Chicago area immigration judges continually express their positive impression of the existence of the Immigration Clinic and the ability of second and third year Chicago-Kent students who represent their clients in court (there is no need for a 711 license in immigration court).

PLEASE ATTEND one of two meetings on Tuesday, January 30, Room 155, at 12 pm and 4 pm.

If you cannot attend this important meeting, but support the preservation of the Immigration Clinic, please e-mail RRODRIGU, JLENTINI or SMURAWSK with your comments.
